

An Honours degree in Business Administration requires a minimum of 132 units which must include:

- a) Lower division requirements
- b) WQB requirements
- c) Non-Bus and Non-Buec units
- d) Business core courses
- e) Area(s) of Concentration
- f) Three Bus 400+ courses
- g) 12 units of approved Bus 400+
- h) Electives at the 100+ or 200+ or 300+ or 400+ levels

An Honours degree in Business Administration will allow you to develop additional depth in your area of concentration. In consultation with the Area Co-ordinator in your concentration you can select 12 units of 400-level Business or Buec course work. These 12 units do not have to all come from only one area of concentration.

Students must apply for an Honours. To do so, a student must have at least 15 units of Upper Division Business work completed. Students should normally apply for the honours program between 75 and 90 units. Consideration may be given to students wanting to enter the honours program after 90 units. Please see an undergraduate advisor for application purposes.

An honours degree has the following grade point average requirements for entry into, continuance in the program:

3.00 cgpa overall

3.00 GPA overall for all upper division BUS and BUEC courses

For graduation, students must also meet the GPA's in accordance with the University and Faculty of Business Administration policies.

Within your final 72 units of your 132 units, you must complete at least:

57 units of upper division work

42 units of Upper Division Bus or Buec + 15 units of Upper Division Bus or Buec or electives

15 units of lower or upper division Bus or Buec or elective.

These hour requirements would be fulfilled from category d), e), f) g), and h).

b) Writing, Quantitative and Breadth Requirements (WQB) - For students admitted to SFU Fall 06 onward

Writing

Students are required to complete 6 units of "W" course work in their degree, one of which must be an upper division (300 or 400 level) course. All the English courses and Phil 100W and Phil 120W, of which you need 2 for admission to SFU Business, are "W" courses. BUS 360W, a Business Core Course, will meet the Writing Upper Division requirement.

Quantitative

Students are required to complete 6 units of "Q" course work in their degree. Since 6 courses required for the BBA are designated "Q" courses, students will meet this requirement while completing their BBA.

Breadth

Students are required to complete 24 units of "B" course work in their degree.

- 6 units of Social Sciences (B-Soc) - can be met with Econ 103 and 105
- 6 units of Humanities (B-Hum)
- 6 units of Science (B-Sc)
- 6 units of Undesignated Breadth (UB) - can be met within the 50 Non-BUS or non-BUEC unit requirement.

For complete information regarding WQB Requirements go to www.sfu.ca/ugcr/For_Students/

c) 50 units of non-Business, non-Buec units

Students must complete a minimum of 50 units of non-Bus or non-Buec courses within their degree requirement. These courses are generally, though not necessarily, completed in the first half of a degree and may be at any level. For example: Math 157. These units would normally come from categories a), b) and e).

d) Business core courses

Require all of:

- Bus 303-3 - Business, Society and Ethics
- Bus 312-4 - Introduction to Finance
- Bus 336-4 - Data and Decisions II
- Bus 343-3 - Introduction to Marketing
- Bus 360W-4 - Business Communication
- Bus 393-3 - Commercial Law
- Bus 478-3 - Seminar in Administrative Policy and one of:

- Bus 374-3 - Organization Theory
- Bus 381-3 - Introduction to Human Resource Management

Core courses must have a minimum grade of C- to meet graduation requirements.

e) Area of Concentration

Students are required to complete at least one area of concentration in their program. More than one area is optional. Courses that are listed in two areas (i.e. Bus 418 is listed in both Finance and International Business) will count towards the requirements of both areas. The concentrations which are available within our program are:

- Accounting (For students admitted to SFU Business summer 09 and before not wishing to complete the Accounting Honours concentration must have already declared an Accounting concentration before August 31st, 2009 to pursue this option)
- Entrepreneurship
- Finance
- International Business
- Human Resource Management
- Management Information Systems
- Management of Innovation
- Management Science
- Marketing

f) Bus 400+ level course requirement

Students are required to complete at least three 400+ level Business or Buec courses within their degree. This requirement is usually met within a student's area(s) of concentration.

Bus 478 and the Bus 425 co-op practicum will not count towards this requirement.

g) 12 units of Bus 400+ Honours requirement

These units are above and beyond the requirements of a Major in Business Administration.

Approval in advance by the Director and the Program Co-ordinator are required for these 12 units.

Visit the Business Undergraduate office during regular advising hours for more information. The application form can be found on the BBA student portal website.
