

Certificate in Corporate Environment and Social Sustainability (CESS) Requirements for Fall 2017 - Summer 2018

In light of the growing demand and attention to environmental and social sustainability issues, the Beedie School of Business and the Faculty of Environment have cooperatively designed the Corporate Environment and Social Sustainability Certificate (CESS) to provide undergraduate Business Major, Business Joint Major and Faculty of Environment students with the opportunity to acquire training and understanding the interconnected nature of the economy, environment, and society.

This certificate is earned through the successful completion of 24 units of the certificate course requirements and an approved experiential or service learning component. This certificate may be declared through the Declaration of Certificate Webform: beedie.sfu.ca/bba/office/certificate.php. Before beginning this requirement, it is recommended that students seek prior approval from the Beedie School of Business' Academic Director, Business Major by submitting a detailed outline of their activity. Students may complete either the certificate in Environmental and Social Sustainability or the Sustainable Business Joint Major program but NOT both the certificate and the Joint Major program

Experiential or Service Learning Component

Co-operative education work term focused on areas related to corporate environmental and social sustainability.

25 hours minimum of voluntary or salaried work within a social enterprise, charitable organization, company, corporation, or non-profit organization in a role related to corporate environmental and social sustainability.

25 hours minimum as a research assistant for a professor focusing on areas related to corporate environmental and social sustainability.

25 hours minimum in other Business Faculty approved activity areas related to corporate environmental and social sustainability.

Before beginning this requirement, prior approval from the Academic Director of the Business Major is recommended by submitting a detailed outline of the activity.*

Experiential or Service Learning Component Description*

A description (written by either the student or the organization) of the organization and the student's role in the organization, signed and validated by the employer/supervisor.

Experiential or Service Learning Component Reflective Essay*

A reflective 500 word essay about the student's work/volunteer experience that identifies key corporate environmental and social sustainability experiences and how that influenced their current thinking about the implications of business practice on society and the environment. The essay will be graded pass/fail.

Submitted to the Academic Director of the Business Major for approval.*

NOTES:

*In accordance with the SFU Academic Calendar, units applied to one certificate may be applied also to major or minor programs if a bachelor's degree under the normal regulations governing those programs but may not be applied to another Simon Fraser University certificate or diploma. Additionally, students pursuing a Bachelor of Business Administration may complete only one of the Certificate in Business Analytics and Decision Making or the Certificate in Business Technology Management, the Certificate in Innovation and Entrepreneurship or the Certificate in Business Technology Management.

Responsibility: The ultimate responsibility for completeness and correctness of course selection, for compliance with and completion of program and degree requirements and for the observance of regulations and deadlines rests with the student. Faculty advisors and staff are available to give advice and guidance, but it is the responsibility of the student to be familiar with the information in the University calendar.
