Business Administration and Interactive Arts and Technology (IAT) Joint Major Course Requirements

The School of Interactive Arts and Technology and the Beedie School of Business co-operate to offer a joint major program. This program produces well-rounded graduates with expertise in the school's concentrations as well as solid business knowledge. Combining human-centered and technology oriented aspects with business knowledge prepares for industry leadership positions, and provides a strong understanding of how to deploy design processes in larger managerial and technological contexts. Students must qualify for, and receive admission to both programs.

Please note:

This checklist refers only to the Business requirements of the Joint Major program. Please consult with the SFU Academic Calendar and the School of Interactive Arts and Technology (IAT) undergraduate advisor regarding the graduation requirements for the IAT portion of your degree. <http://www.sfu.ca/siat/undergraduate/advisor/academic-advising.html>

Responsibility: The ultimate responsibility rests with the student for completeness and correctness of course selection, for compliance with and completion of program and degree requirements, and for the observance of regulations and deadlines. Faculty advisors and staff are available to give advice and guidance, but it is the responsibility of the student to be familiar with the information in the University calendar.
