The SFU Beedie School of Business prides itself on creating an innovative, student-centred and creative learning environment. We develop opportunities for students to effectively collaborate in impactful ways inside and outside the classroom. We are an engaged community of creative thinkers from diverse perspectives and backgrounds. With a typical class of just 50 students, the SFU Beedie MBA learning experience lets you discover your strengths and take risks in a supportive environment.

The small class size facilitates an interactive and applied learning environment, where you’ll work closely with faculty. Your classmates will become invaluable business connections and lifelong friends.

You will graduate with a business management toolkit that applies across industries, providing you with more career options and greater mobility.

ABOUT SFU BEEDIE

Simon Fraser University’s Beedie School of Business has a heritage of innovation. We offered the first Executive MBA, the first Indigenous Business Leadership Executive MBA, and the first Management of Technology MBA in Canada. We are among only 1% of business schools worldwide with dual accreditation by AACSB* and EQUIS*, and we are ranked among the top 10 business schools in Canada.

Today, SFU Beedie has more than 25,000 alumni in 83 countries. SFU Beedie’s Segal Graduate School offers nine graduate programs delivered through the Segal campus in downtown Vancouver and a state-of-the-art SFU campus in Surrey.

12 MONTHS OF ACADEMICS, PLUS A 4-MONTH WORK TERM
You want to take your career to the next level. The SFU Beedie MBA will give you the edge you need to get there. By combining theory and application, the program will give you a strong grounding in business fundamentals.

As you move through the 12-month academic component in the centre of Vancouver's diverse, vibrant and entrepreneurial business community, expect to become immersed in deep, thought-provoking questions and real-world business problems. Instead of memorizing textbooks and taking standardized tests, you’ll learn through interactive and experiential learning methods. At the end of the 12-months of academics, you’ll put your knowledge into practice during the required 4-month work term.

When you graduate, you’ll embark on the next stage of your career equipped with in-demand business skills and a 360-degree view of how businesses operate today.

“I came to SFU Beedie for several reasons. The first was the length of the program. The compressed format meant that I would be away from work for a shorter period of time and hence further minimized the cost of getting my MBA degree. Another factor was class size. With only around 50 students in a cohort, it was small enough to allow us to build meaningful relationships with each other and our professors. At the same time, it was also large and diverse enough that our collective knowledge and experiences from different industries allow us to learn effectively from each other. Lastly, the faculty & staff are very approachable and supportive throughout the MBA journey & beyond.”

— Rhoena Endaya, FT MBA Alumnus, Project Manager at LiveSwitch
Taking an MBA doesn’t mean leaving the workforce completely. At the end of the 12-months of academics, you’ll have the opportunity to apply what you’ve learned in a real-world setting through the work term requirement. You can choose between:

- A paid four-month internship: With the support of the Career Management Centre, apply for positions where you can implement your newly acquired skills, knowledge, and fresh ideas.
- Moving straight into a permanent position: Transition directly into an employment position with your previous or a new employer.
- Starting your own new venture: Vancouver is Canada’s centre of entrepreneurship. If you’d like to start a new venture or work with innovative start-ups, you couldn’t have come to a better place. SFU is home to three innovation labs: Coast Capital Savings Venture Connection®, RADIUS, and VentureLabs®.

Joshua Viner, FT MBA Alumnus, Regional Director, Vacasa

After the 12-months of academics, Joshua opted to move straight into a permanent position as Head of Strategic Partnerships at Vancouver based tech firm Left™. Now, Joshua is the Regional Director at Vacasa.

THE INTERNATIONAL APPLIED PROJECT
The MBA International Applied Project is truly a program highlight. You’ll expand upon knowledge and skills gained from the MBA curriculum, and apply your toolkit outside of the classroom. Carefully selected international settings allow for global perspectives on business and a broader comprehension of working in multicultural environments. You’ll gain valuable insights through integrated coursework, seminars, company visits, and cultural experiences, culminating in an applied consulting-style deliverable presented to a corporate partner.

"The MBA international applied project was one of the highlights of the SFU MBA program. The relationships I built with the companies, professors, alumni and my cohort have allowed me to expand my understanding of the global marketplace."
– Ruby Chang, FT MBA Alumnus, Supply Chain Manager, MEC

CAPSTONE
This course consists of a comprehensive strategy simulation called CAPSIM. CAPSIM is used in leading business schools around the world to help students enact, and in turn be tested on their knowledge of business strategy. Students will be running a company in a competitive industry along with a group of classmates. They will need to utilize skills learned in other classes and be able to integrate them to make business decisions.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE
At the end of the 12-months of academics, you will have three options to complete the work term requirement of the program and test your learning in the real world. In each case, you will deliver a report after four months as the final part of your degree. Your options are:
• Undertake a paid four-month internship
• Move straight into a permanent role
• Start your own new venture through Coast Capital Savings Venture Connection® SPARK program or approved equivalent opportunities

"My favourite part of the MBA was getting the opportunity to apply our classroom knowledge to consulting projects for companies like Rocky Mountaineer, HSBC, and Quadreal. These unique experiences were opportunities to test out theoretical frameworks in real-life scenarios in a safe and constructive approach to learning."
– Anna Ma, Operational Manager, MDF Export Ltd.
LEARN FROM THE BEST IN BUSINESS
Our faculty members not only know the business world inside out, they know how to bring it to life in the classroom. Because our class sizes are small, they'll get to know you and your professional goals.

“I am always blown away by the creativity that students put into each assignment in the Managing People and Organizations course—whether it is a role play, an in-class presentation, or the video teams make to analyze an organizational problem in a movie.”

— Lieke ten Brummelhuis

ENRICH YOUR LEARNING AND DEFINE YOUR PATH

THIS IS A YEAR TO REMEMBER
Your education goes beyond the classroom. SFU Beedie has a well-earned reputation for supporting and encouraging students to explore co-curricular activities in a way other institutions don’t. We see case competitions, MBA Games, conferences and other events as a way to uncover different leadership opportunities, hone your business skills and tap into a vibrant network of industry leaders. After all, what you learn in the classroom could change your thinking, but what you learn outside the classroom could change your life.

STUDENT CLUBS
Your education goes beyond the classroom. Join a club to develop leadership, team-building, event management, and networking skills.

The Graduate Business Student Association plays an active role in the leadership of our school. From feedback on the program and curriculum to creating social and educational events, this group works to continuously improve the SFU Beedie experience.

Net Impact is a student club dedicated to sustainability. It empowers SFU Beedie students to become future-focused and responsible business leaders who make a positive environmental, social, and economic impact in their community and beyond. This club also organizes a number of events throughout the year to provide students with opportunities to learn and network with industry experts.

The Graduate Women’s Council strives to empower women to lead and succeed in the workplace while pledging to work toward a more inclusive and equal society. This active student team provides networking opportunities, workshops, and access to external events aimed at developing and sustaining a culture of support and encouragement.

MBA GAMES
MBA Games is an annual competition and the largest gathering of MBA students in Canada. Up to 40 SFU Beedie MBA students are selected to compete in academic, sports, and spirit competitions against top business schools across the country.

CASE COMPETITIONS
Get involved in case competitions that provide you with the opportunity to apply what you learn in the classroom to real-world business problems while gaining the confidence and skills to analyze problems and make recommendations under pressure. With a dedicated training program and financial support to attend competitions, you’ll be ready to compete with the best, network with industry professionals, and showcase your success.

CONFERENCES AND EVENTS
Attending conferences is an opportunity to meet and connect with business individuals in the community while gaining exposure to new ideas and innovations. The SFU Beedie Student Engagement Office shares information and potential sponsorship for students to attend external events such as the BC Tech Summit, Grace Hopper Celebration of Women in Computing, Responsible Investing Association Annual Conference, Vancouver Entrepreneur Forum, and the Women’s Executive Network Speaker Series.

STUDENT AMBASSADOR PROGRAM
On an annual basis, the MBA program selects Student Ambassadors to represent the Beedie School of Business in a variety of activities, including recruitment, marketing, student and alumni engagement, as well as orientation.

YOUR ALUMNI COMMUNITY
As a SFU Beedie student and future alumnus, you are already a member of an exceptional community made up of over 26,000 SFU Beedie alumni living across the globe. A community known for being innovative, socially responsible and globally minded. As a student we encourage you to attend events, stay connected, and become familiar with the lifetime benefits you have access to as alumni. To learn more click here.

Read more about the student experience on our student blog: A Few Good Minds
Explore your start-up idea with an experienced entrepreneur at a Mentor Meet session. Hosted by Coast Capital Savings Venture Connection®️, these free sessions are offered at all three SFU campuses and are open to the entire SFU community (students, staff, faculty, and recent alumni). SFU Beedie frequently hosts business-specific Mentor Meets at the Segal Graduate School campus.

In alignment with our calling to develop innovative business leaders, SFU Beedie hosts experiential learning events such as a new product development simulation, where students work together in multifunctional teams to design, build and manufacture a drone delivery service. Participating in fun, interactive simulations frames innovation as an organization-wide responsibility and opportunity, and provides awareness of the blurred lines of responsibility that can exist within the innovation sphere.

WE’LL GIVE YOU AN EDGE OVER THE COMPETITION

Your dedicated career advisor will help you to plan for success. We’ll provide personalized support, useful resources and tools, career-building skills to help you stand out, and opportunities to network with industry professionals.

CAREER PLANNING AND COACHING

Whether you already know where you want to go with your career or you’re exploring your options, we are here to support your career journey. We’ll start by providing you with self-assessment tools and then give personalized coaching on how to map out future possibilities, assess your fit in the marketplace and tap into the hidden job market. You’ll continue to have access to these services even after you’ve graduated.

MENTORS IN BUSINESS

Take advantage of the largest one-on-one business mentorship program in Western Canada. On average, the Career Management Centre (CMC) matches students with over 300 industry professionals. These mentors are keen on helping you build business relationships and offering career guidance and advice. Mentors share their knowledge, experience, and wisdom to help you make informed career choices.

GUEST SPEAKERS AND PANELS

The CMC’s Career events aim to give SFU Beedie students access to industry professionals in a small group setting to allow for free-flowing dialogue. We engage with industry professionals who will share their experience and expertise in their functional role, industry, and organization.

SKILL-BUILDING WORKSHOPS AND ACTIVITIES

Whether it is supporting you to land your dream role or directing you to the information, tools and resources for your start-up, we are here to create opportunities that foster your growth and development. We’re here to assist you throughout the entire MBA journey by delivering career-building workshops, providing employer mock interviews and networking events, and making personalized introductions within SFU Beedie’s extensive corporate network.

REAL WORLD EXPERIENCE

The CMC will also support you in your job search by connecting you with employers, job opportunities and additional internships. With a dedicated job board for companies seeking to hire from SFU Beedie, you’ll have hundreds of opportunities to choose from.

NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES

Build close relationships with your cohort, business professionals, and other Beedie graduate students. Tap into a global and engaged network of SFU Beedie alumni during events and workshops presented by leading industry leaders.

I was applying for a new job at a large pharmaceutical firm. I knew I had the qualifications but it’s a very competitive industry and I desperately wanted to make it past the initial interview with HR. My mentor coached me through the process: he suggested the types of questions to ask when networking with company representatives; he conducted mock interviews for me; and he encouraged me throughout the entire interview process. I ended up getting my dream job thanks to my mentor’s guidance and support.”

– Sylvana Sbeinati, FT MBA Alumnus, Medical Science Liaison, Sanofi Genzyme

Vancouver’s dynamic and supportive business community has seen it establish itself as Canada’s tech start-up hub. This has in turn prompted Boeing, Facebook, Amazon and Microsoft to set up local offices, as well as attracting the world-renowned TED Conference to the city.

THE BUILDING

You will spend most of your days at the Segal Graduate School campus in the heart of Downtown Vancouver. Its 60,000 square feet accommodates the finest in meeting and classroom facilities. The central location makes commuting easy and helps integrate you into the local business community. It also provides easy access to Vancouver’s dining and entertainment scene for those all-important post-class get-togethers.

Watch now: FT MBA Alumnus, Renee Rivers shares her experience moving to Vancouver, Canada to pursue the MBA program.

VANCOUVER: THE CENTRE OF BUSINESS AND INNOVATION

Vancouver isn’t just about spectacular mountains, ocean vistas or its mild climate. It’s a gateway to the Asia-Pacific region and a centre of entrepreneurship in Canada and North America.
Morenike Akinyemi was looking for greater mobility early on in her career. After spending two years working as a clinical pharmacist at various Nigerian hospitals and pharmacies, she traveled over 10,000 km to Vancouver from her home in Nigeria to take her career to the next level. Morenike chose the MBA to develop a business management toolkit to go along with her strong clinical skills, and to prep for a successful transition from patient care to the business strategy side of the healthcare industry. Today she leverages her MBA skills, strategic mindset and network at Canada Health Infoway.

Morenike Akinyemi
LEAD PROJECT MANAGER, VIRTUAL CARE PROGRAMS AT CANADA HEALTH INFOWAY

"I always saw myself working beyond clinical pharmacy. I felt that I could also shine on the business side of healthcare. I knew that with my strong clinical training an MBA would help open more doors and give me the mobility I was looking for in my career."

Phil VanLaar felt it was time to invest in himself. After spending eight years working as a civil engineer at several top Canadian engineering firms, he was looking to prepare for a successful transition into another industry. He also wanted greater career mobility into upper management. Phil chose the MBA to develop a business management skillset to complement his robust technical experience as well as to broaden his professional connections beyond the civil engineering and construction industry. Today Phil is using his MBA skills in a new career working in management consulting at the Business Development Bank of Canada (BDC).

Phil VanLaar
BUSINESS ADVISOR, HIGH IMPACT FIRMS AT BDC ADVISORY SERVICES

"I wanted to make a career change. I knew that if I invested in myself with an MBA that it would give me the mobility I was looking for to pivot successfully into a new career."
SFU Beedie MBA students enjoy priority access to SFU’s apartment-style downtown Vancouver residence, which is at the centre of a dynamic living and learning community of entrepreneurship and ideas.

Opened in 2016, the residence is in the same building as the Charles Chang Institute for Entrepreneurship. The Institute is also home to RADIUS Social Innovation Lab and Venture Incubator.

Living at the residence lets you live in the heart of Vancouver—recognized as one of the most livable downtown areas in North America—and walk to class. You can choose from a range of accommodation options, from studios to two-bedroom and study units. Shared amenities provide all the comforts of home.
