

ADMISSION PATHWAY

CONTINUING STUDIES CERTIFICATE TO GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (GDBA)

Are you a mid- to late-career professional with 8+ years of professional work experience, interested in pursuing the Graduate Diploma in Business Administration (GDBA)? If you've completed one of the identified Continuing Studies non-credit certificates, you could be eligible for admission even if you haven't completed an undergraduate degree.

USE THIS THREE-PART SELF-ASSESSMENT CHECKLIST TO SEE IF YOU MEET THE ADMISSION CRITERIA:

SELF-ASSESSMENT CHECKLIST

1. I've completed at least one of the following SFU Continuing Studies Certificates:

Business Analysis Certificate	Human Resources Management Certificate
Business Management Certificate	Non-Profit Management Certificate
Executive Leadership Certificate	Social Innovation Certificate

2. To meet the fundamental math and financial literacy competency, I have completed at least one of the following:

- SFU Continuing Studies Business Analysis Certificate
- SFU Continuing Studies Business Management Certificate
- SFU Continuing Studies Non-Profit Management Certificate
- a LinkedIn Learning "Business Math" course
- other evidence and will provide an example and a short explanation

3. To meet the business and professional writing skills competency, I have completed at least one of the following:

- a LinkedIn Learning "Business Communication" course
- other evidence and will provide an example and a short explanation

NEXT STEPS

1. Start Your Application to the GDBA
2. Pay the application fee
3. Upload your supporting documents

Supporting documents include your SFU Continuing Studies transcript (see instructions on how to Request Your Transcript), any other post-secondary transcripts, your resume.

APPLICATION PROCESS

For more details on the application process and what is required, please see: GDBA How to Apply